

MINUTES
CJCC MEETING
April 18, 2019

PRESENT WERE: Judge Anderson, Judge Stewart, Sharon Lee, Mark Schmitt, Breanne Meyer, Dave Willingham, Kevin Julien, Stephanie Thomas, Jeff Wallace, Craig Voldberg, Jessica Flater, Andy Albarado

Meeting was called to order by Judge Stewart at 7:30 am.

Approval of the minutes from last meeting were approved by Judge Anderson, seconded by Mark Schmitt. Amended motion to approve minutes to include January and March's minutes was approved by Judge Anderson, seconded by Mark Schmitt.

Judge Stewart informed the committee that each person present today should be thinking of one thing they would like the CJCC Committee to do – he encouraged everyone to think outside the box and at the end of the meeting each one would be asked to share.

Committee Reports:

Grant Committee – Sharon stated the committee is not sure what grants they should look for. Nancy Hahn reviews any information she gets for possible grants for CJCC.

Date Committee – Met last Monday

Criminal Court – did not meet

Juvenile – working on truancy. Lots of work with the schools. Getting ready to make presentations to school boards.

Wish List

Judge Anderson – community service program

Sharon Lee – CJCC Coordinator/community service

Jeff Wallace – new jail and vaping ordinance

Stephanie Thomas – Education in schools regarding underage sexual behavior/look at the process

Jessica Flater – Mentorship program

Craig Voldberg – Community Service/half-way house/homeless needs

Bill Stewart – Get resources to generate data and program evaluation

Breanne Meyer – Community Service

Dave Willingham – Would like more data that would support having county programs. Combine mentor and community service programs – Indianhead Action Agency may be able to provide help or other local non-profit organizations

Kevin Julien – Mental Health – Have a facility for northern communities

Mark Schmitt – Treatment in community

Andy – wants to more informed about CJCC /poverty issues in Rusk County

Meeting adjourned at 8:30 am

Respectfully submitted,

Sharon Lee

