RE: Administrative Code DOC 350.07(7) Violation

Rusk County Sheriff's Office is implementing the following procedural steps to take corrective action to the classification violation.

Effective immediately, jail staff have been advised under no circumstances are they to mix classifications in a housing unit. We will house our inmates in another facility (Barron or Chippewa) if we cannot accommodate the correct housing assignment within the DOC Code. This will also take a patrol deputy off of the road to transport those inmates to other facilities outside of Rusk County. Rusk County jail staff understand the severity of this violation and the potential liability to the county. We are in the very early states of potentially building a new facility that would greatly improve our ability to properly house inmates.
